

20 POETRY IS LIFE BOOK AWARD 27

Each year Poetry Is Life Publishing will award one poet with the Poetry Is Life Book Award for their original poetry manuscript. The award will consist of the author's manuscript being published in paperback form. The author will receive 20 copies of their book, an engraved award plaque, and a poetic t-shirt. The author's book will also be added to our poetry collection on our website. The author will receive their books, their poetic t-shirt and engraved award plaque in June 2027. Visit www.poetryislifepublishing.com and click on the Contests tab or scroll down on the main page and until you see The 2027 Poetry Is Life Book Award and click on the link for more info.

Submission Dates: June 15, 2026 - August 31, 2026.

Submission Guidelines: Open to anyone, except past winners. No entry fee. Interested authors need to submit by postal mail or email in a (PDF), 30 to 50 original poems, any style, any form, any length and no more than three pictures if you want to have pictures in your book. Previously published poems and simultaneous submissions accepted. No previously published books accepted. The manuscript should have a title and a table of contents page with all pages included in your book (the Introduction page, Dedication page, Foreword, Thank you page, Blank pages, etc, if you have them) and be in the order you want your poems to appear in your book. Also submit:

1 Author Statement: This will be the reason why you entered your manuscript for publication.

3 Author References: These references will be from three different people who support your work.
These forms are found on the website.

Poems submitted for this award should exhibit a realness, a creative authentic voice. One that empowers and challenges the author and challenges life: the way people think and the way people feel. Poems should be strong in language but easy to understand. They should be thought-provoking, powerful, and purposeful. They should have the ability to "get in your face" and also "get into your heart." The poems should be bold, unapologetic but respectful, simple yet sophisticated, vulnerable yet victorious. Ultimately, your poems should be the link that connects the readers soul to yours. (No hate speech!)
