

Poetry Is Life Publishing, FashioKnits, Joe May, and an anonymous donor presents

A FATHER'S HEART

Poetry Contest 2022

In the spirit of Father's Day, (which is everyday) the poetry contest: A Father's Heart was created. This contest is free and open to everyone.

Accepting Submissions: March 1 through May 6, 2022.

Interested persons need to submit by email or postal mail:

One (1) original typed, handwritten, or electronically submitted poem. Any line length. The poem should highlight the importance of father's heart, a father's impact on and contribution to the world and what they go through, or anything dealing with how fatherhood has impacted your life. And a bio of no more than 100 words.

Three (3) poems will be chosen to receive the prize of $150 split three ways:

First Place: $75 and (A 10 in. x 14 in. Father's Day Canvas) Second Place: $50, Third Place: $25
Winning poems will be published in the upcoming poetry compilation book: The Voices of Real 7.

Send poem, submission form and bio through email to: poetryislifepublishing@gmail.com or

Send typed/handwritten poem, submission form and bio to:

Poetry Is Life Publishing, A Father's Heart Poetry Contest, P.O. Box 228, Akron, Ohio 44309.

Any questions, please send an email to poetryislifepublishing@gmail.com

Cut on the line and submit this form your with poem

Poetry Submission Form

Title of your poem: _____

First Name: _____ Middle Initial: _____ Last Name: _____

Address: _____ City/State/ Zip: _____

Email: _____ Phone () _____

By submitting your poem, and this info through paper or email you are stating that your submission is your original work.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Now! They Will Listen To Us!